Entre News

November 5, 2012

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

It was great to see so many Dames at our Autumn General Membership Meeting where we shared Chapter news and an exciting line-up of activities for the coming year. Many members had terrific ideas to expand our programs and committee efforts, and have volunteered your time and resources. Please keep the momentum going and let's turn it into action! Many thanks to Chef Devon Capili and the team at the Renaissance Washington DC Dupont Circle Hotel for a wonderful event and delicious dinner.

We're pleased to launch this issue of Entre News which is redesigned to provide a new, easy-to-read format with links to information you need to know. And, the newsletter is being sent to you through our updated email list which will further improve our communications with you. Entre News now features a brand new "Dames Corner" section to introduce you to members you may not know and update you on friends you'd like to catch up with.

Mark your calendar for a very special Holiday Potluck Gathering on Thursday, November 29 at the home of Dame Joan Nathan. While sharing a holiday toast and delicious nibbles, we will welcome guest speakers to discuss the publication of the new book "101 Classic Cookbooks" (details below). I look forward to seeing you there!

My best,
Judy Rusignuolo, President

HURRAH!

Can we include photo of Gail? There's one on website.

Congratulations to Gail Forman, recently honored as the recipient of Les Dames Washington DC Chapter's "2012 Distinguished Dame Award." This coveted award honors Dames whose leadership and contributions have shaped our Chapter and helped accomplish our goals.

A member since 1984, Gail has actively served on the Board as a Director or Officer for many terms. Her special passion, skill and hard work on educational programs have transformed our programs to a high level of excellence. The Chapter is grateful to Gail for her dedication and service.

Gail was surprised and delighted to join a prestigious group of accomplished Dames who have received this award, saying “what an unexpected and deeply appreciated honor it is to receive this award for my contributions to Les Dames. But participation in Dames activities has given me much, too, especially the friendship of sister Dames, professional opportunities, and an outlet for creativity. Thank you.”

Special thanks to Chair Goody Solomon and the Distinguished Dames Committee for their work in selecting this year’s honoree.

Lynne Breaux will be honored as one of the region’s most influential business women at the “2012 Women Who Mean Business” awards celebration on November 15. The event is sponsored by the Washington Business Journal and Capital One Bank.

Martha's Table "Thank You" Message to DC Dames

"What a wonderful day Sunday turned out to be! With all the trepidation of the impending storm, we were so concerned that the Food Day event might not have been able to take place. Now I know what a terrible lost opportunity that would have been. With the wonderful hospitality of the Occasions Catering staff and the really fantastic programming and demonstrations by all of you, we were able to provide the children, parents and teachers of Martha's Table with a real learning experience, a lot of fun, and delicious food. As I said to Eric Michael of Occasions, one never really knows the impact that an event such as that could have on those who participated -- which child might now imagine a career as a chef, which parent will change his or her food buying habits or what lesson one of the teachers might pass on to our students. (I know, there are 613 seeds in a pomegranate!)

I so look forward to this deepening relationship between Les Dames and Martha's Table and thank you for helping us spread the word about good food and good nutrition.

*Best regards,
Michael Bartscherer, Martha's Table*
