ARTICLE I. Name

The name of the organization is Les Dames d'Escoffier, Washington, D.C., Chapter (hereinafter referred to as "Chapter").

ARTICLE II. Purpose

Section 1. Purpose

The purposes of the Chapter are to uphold Les Dames d'Escoffier's (hereinafter referred to as "LDEI") principles and to support its mission of education and philanthropy primarily for women.

- A. Education. The Chapter is dedicated to furthering the knowledge, understanding, and appreciation of food, beverage, and hospitality.
- B. Philanthropy. The Chapter is dedicated to raising and disbursing funds for scholarships, grants, and other approved projects of the Chapter. The Chapter is dedicated to mentoring individuals who are entering or seeking to expand their knowledge in these fields.

Section 2. Tax Status

The Chapter is a tax-exempt charitable organization registered in Washington, D.C., organized and operated exclusively for exempt purposes as set forth in section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE III. Fiscal Year and Membership Year

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Chapter will be July 1 through June 30.

Section 2. Membership Year

The membership year of the Chapter will be July 1 through June 30. New members inducted into the Chapter will be granted full membership benefits as of the date of induction.

ARTICLE IV. Membership

Section 1. Criteria for Applicants

- A. Candidates for membership must be professional women whose main paid occupation has been in the food, beverage, and hospitality industries for a minimum of five (5) years.
- B. Candidates must have demonstrated leadership and outstanding achievement professionally.
- C. Candidates must be dedicated to furthering educational and professional opportunities for women in the food, beverage, and hospitality industries.
- D. Candidates must agree to support the purposes of the Chapter and to abide by its Bylaws, Standing Rules, Policies, and Code of Ethics.

Section 2. Applicants and New Member Procedures

- A. Candidates must submit a completed Chapter membership application to the First Vice President by the designated deadline.

- B. The Membership Committee will meet, review all applications, and recommend candidates for membership to the Board of Directors of the Chapter (hereinafter referred to as “Board”).
- C. The Board will vote to approve or deny candidates who are recommended for membership.
- D. New members must follow the procedures for membership as outlined in Standing Rules.

Section 3. Requirements for Member in Good Standing

- A. Members must support and work for the purposes of LDEI and the Chapter and abide by their Bylaws, Standing Rules, Policies, and Code of Ethics. Members are expected to attend and support fundraising activities of the Chapter.
- B. Members must pay annual dues by the date stated in the Standing Rules.
- C. Members must attend one Chapter event and one of the two (2) General Membership Meetings annually in person or electronically as set forth in the Standing Rules. Proxies do not constitute attendance.

Section 4. Membership Categories

- A. Active. An active member fulfills the membership requirements as outlined in Article III, Section 3, and is therefore entitled to all LDEI and Chapter benefits with full voting privileges.
- B. Nonresident. A nonresident fulfills the membership requirements as outlined in the Bylaws but is not required to meet the attendance requirement. This category of membership applies to Active members who leave the Chapter area, live beyond ninety (90) miles from Washington, D.C., and wish to maintain their affiliation. Nonresident members retain full voting privileges.
- C. Dual Members. A member may maintain membership in two (or more) chapters. The member pays chapter dues to all chapters, pays LDEI dues through her primary chapter, and is listed in the LDEI directory under all chapters. A dual member is on all of the chapters' rolls, receives all of those chapters' communications, and benefits from the Chapter event discounts. If the Washington, D.C., Chapter is her primary chapter, she will abide by the membership requirements of the Chapter. If it is not her primary chapter, she will have the privileges of a nonresident member.
- D. Honorary. An honorary membership is awarded by the Board in recognition of exceptional contributions by an individual in food, beverage, and hospitality. Honorary memberships may be reviewed annually. Honorary members do not pay dues to the international or chapter organizations, are exempt from attendance requirements, and do not have the right to vote. The member will be designated "Honorary" in the Chapter directory. Her name will not be submitted for inclusion in the LDEI Directory.

Section 5. Transferring Members

- A. A member in good standing in another LDEI chapter who wishes to transfer her membership to the Chapter may do so by providing a letter from the current president or presiding officer of her chapter confirming that she is a member in good standing.
- B. A transferring member will pay Chapter dues, which may be prorated.

Section 6. Leave of Absence

- A. A member may request a leave of absence for one (1) year at a time for up to three (3) consecutive years by sending a written request to the Membership Committee prior to the membership renewal deadline. The criteria for a leave of absence are outlined in the Standing Rules. The Membership Committee will review the request and make a recommendation to the Board. The Board will grant or deny the request. The leave of absence must follow the Chapter's fiscal year and will affect membership benefits in both LDEI and the Chapter.
- B. A member in good standing who has been granted a leave of absence and wishes to be reinstated must inform the Membership Committee of her intention to be reinstated and pay her dues as outlined for all members in the Standing Rules.

Section 7. Termination of Membership

- A. Failure to pay membership dues by the designated deadline will result in termination of membership, unless an exception is approved by the Board. The criteria for an exception are outlined in the Standing Rules.
- B. Failure to meet the attendance requirements will result in a review by the Membership Committee. The Membership Committee will make a recommendation to the board which may result in termination of the membership.
- C. The standing of any member whose actions are deemed to be out of compliance with the Chapter's Bylaws, Standing Rules, Policies, or Code of Ethics is subject to review by the Membership Committee. The Membership Committee will make a recommendation to the Board, which may result in termination of membership.
- D. If a former member wishes to be readmitted to the Chapter, she must reapply.

ARTICLE V. Board of Directors

Section 1. General Powers

- A. The affairs of the Chapter will be managed by the Board, which will consist of the elected Officers and Directors.
- B. The Officers and Directors are responsible for the duties set forth in the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

- G. The Alternate Director is elected for a one-year (1) term, which does not count in the number of terms served on the Board.
- H. After seven (7) consecutive years on the Board, a member will be ineligible for nomination as a Director or as an Officer for one (1) year.

Section 6. Board Meetings

- A. Board meetings will be held monthly and are open to all Chapter members.
- B. Each Officer and Director must attend a minimum of seventy-five (75) percent of the total number of Board and General Membership meetings and fulfill the requirements of her respective office. Additional absences due to extenuating circumstances may be approved by the President.
- C. Members of the Board may participate in a meeting by means of a telephone conference or similar electronic communications if all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Such participation in a meeting will be deemed to constitute presence in person at the meetings.
- D. Special meetings of the Board may be held providing notice of a date and hour set by the President is sent at least four (4) days ahead of time. These meetings may be held by conference call. The President will send notice of such a meeting to each Officer and Director.
- E. Meetings Protocol. All Board meetings will be governed according to parliamentary procedure as set forth in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, except that these rules may be suspended by resolution duly adopted as provided therein.

Section 7. Vacancies

- A. In the case of the President's temporary or permanent inability to perform duties, with the approval of the Board, the responsibilities of the office will go to the First Vice President or next senior Officer or a Director able to perform the duties of the President. If those Officers and Directors are unavailable, with approval of the Board, the duties will transfer to a qualified Chapter member able to perform the duties of President.
- B. Should an Officer leave her office for any reason, the President will appoint, with the approval of the Board, a qualified Board member able to perform the duties of the office to carry out the term.
- C. Should a Director leave her position for any reason, the President will appoint, with the approval of the Board, the Alternate Director or a qualified Chapter member to the position to carry out the term.

Section 8. Removal

An Officer or Director may be removed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Board whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of the Chapter would be served.

ARTICLE VI. General Membership Meetings

Section 1. General Membership Meeting Designation and Schedule

There will be a minimum of two (2) General Membership Meetings annually: autumn and spring. All other meetings will be designated as Special General Membership Meetings. Attendance will be taken at all meetings.

Section 2. General Membership Meeting Notification and Order of Business

- A. The Autumn General Membership Meeting will be held at a date fixed by the Board, unless an exception is made by the Board. The Spring General Membership Meeting will be held as fixed by the Board, unless an exception is made by the Board.
- B. The Communications Secretary will send an electronic notice of a General Membership Meeting to every member in good standing. The notice will be sent no fewer than twenty-one (21) days nor more than forty-five (45) days before the date of the meeting, setting forth the time, place, and agenda. The validity of any action taken at the meeting will not be affected by failure of delivery of such notice provided it was sent in a timely manner to the electronic address of record for the member.
- C. The order of business in the Autumn and Spring General Membership Meetings will be according to the agendas set forth in the Standing Rules.
- D. Meeting Protocol. All meetings will be governed according to parliamentary procedures set forth in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, except that these rules may be suspended by resolution duly adopted as provided therein.
