She Called Me "Dearie"

A memoir talk about spending time with Julia Child

Stephanie Hersh will tell exciting and humorous "behind the scenes" stories about what it was like to work with culinary icon, Grande Dame Julia Child. Stephanie received a Betty Crocker Easy-Bake oven when she was six years old and decided then and there that she was going to be a chef! Since then, her career path has spread in many directions, and she was thrilled to serve as the full-time Executive Personal Assistant to Julia Child for nearly 16 years. She is pleased to share her passion about all things culinary. Don't miss this special opportunity!

Stephanie's full-time position with Julia Child lasted from 1989 until Julia's death in 2004. It was a very exciting and rewarding position, indeed! In August of 2004, the offices of Julia Child's Kitchen were closed. Stephanie moved to New Zealand, where she teaches cooking classes, demonstrates cookware products and runs Chef Steph, a pastry enterprise. Recently, Stephanie joined the Culinary Instructor team onboard Oceania Cruise Lines. She holds a B.A. from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA, an AOS for Culinary Arts from the CIA, and a Masters of Gastronomy from Boston University.
